

INSPIRATION SUNGLASSES

1

2

3

4

WONDERFULLY WEIRD

OUT-OF-THE-ORDINARY FRAMES

These unconventional suns make their own rules.

BY RACHEL BOZEK

5

6

7

8

9

1. LOEWE The flower-shaped LW40088U blooms with a universal fit frame made with injected nylon. mythelios.com, $380 | 2. MODERN OPTICAL The off-the-beaten-path, oversized Modz Sunz style South has a double brow bar and celebrates geometric shapes. (800) 323-2409, modernoptical.com, $150 | 3. MIC Zebra print meets tort — with some solid sprinkled in — on the Fiamma, an oversized acetate frame. imagine98.it, price upon request | 4. DOLCE & GABBANA Part of the legendary brand's DG Rubber collection, the DG6174 is defined by wide temples that have transparent inserts and a spiral rubber cord. (800) 422-2020, myluxottica.com, $372 | 5. GÖTTI With a polyamide front and stainless-steel temples, the AHLF brings comfort, flexibility, and innovative design together. (914) 274-8522, gotti.ch, starting at $375 | 6. JF REY Defined by a removable sun clip, the JF3024 is an acetate-stainless steel combination frame. jfreyfr/en, $500 | 7. G.O.D A triangular cat eye, the Six is handmade with Japanese acetate and custom hinges. god-eyewear.com, $270 | 8. FACE À FACE With standout temples and double-riveted hinges, the acetate AALTO is a limited-edition design. (800) 654-6099, designeyeweargroup.com, $585 | 9. LANVIN The LNV636S offers a nod to the brand's signature zig-zag shoelaces and punched-out, chain-ready temple tips. (800) 645-1300, marchon.com, $480